Hope this answer solve your problem Update 2: After asking the official dev he has released this public version of gimgunlock-0.04 DEA-designated "kingpins" operating in the West Africa Trafficking Corridor have cut off members of the Cartel de Drogas Jalisco Nueva Generacion (CDJN) from their lucrative drug distribution networks in the United States, sources said. Cartel members, apprehended or jailed in El Paso, Texas, and drug investigations found in Tijuana and Juárez, Mexico, revealed that large quantities of cocaine were being moved between at least 60 locations around San Diego and Los Angeles in California and in the state's inland regions. These cartels are said to be powerful and sophisticated, moving product from a central distribution point in El Paso to smaller groups of users in the states. Mexican authorities said the CDJN is a gang that began several years ago as an offshoot of the Zetas after their leader, Arturo Beltrán Leyva, was killed in October of 2009. The group takes on the form of a cartel by expanding geographic operations and increasing drug-trafficking activities to include the U.S. and Europe, the government said. Department of Homeland Security officials and sources said the Mexican gangs are fighting to control the lucrative trade route stretching from Ciudad Juárez, Mexico, to El Paso, Texas.
