Free video screen capture utility. Supports recording the active window or selected area on screen. Can be used to record desktop, applications, game window, and so on. It can capture the video (AVI) or audio (MP3) and save them as a.avi or.mp3 file. Keyboard Macro: The keyboard macro software lets you record macro or hotkeys with one keypress. The recorder window records all of the keystrokes one by one. It can record 10 types of keystrokes on an XP or Vista PC. The software can be used to record hotkeys, such as shortcuts, commands, mousescroll and so on. To make an active keymap recording, keystrokes on all of the active keys on the keyboard can be recorded. If you want to see the shortcut keys on the display, you can display it in the popup window. Keyboard Macro Tips: Keyboard Macro can enable you to record the hotkeys one by one to be displayed in the popup window. If you record the hotkey, you can just press the hotkey without pressing other keys, to avoid the popup window will be shown repeatedly. You can enter multiple hotkeys to be recorded in a same record. All of the hotkeys will be recorded as a same record when you press one key. All of the hotkeys will be recorded as a same keypress. The hotkeys can be different keys. You can set a delay time for the hotkey. You can set the size of hotkey window. Record the hotkeys using the hotkey mapper.
