App Size: 45.8 MB AppCategory: File Manager ApplicationDeveloper: Appman Inc. MinimumOSVersion: iOS 5.0 Price: $9.99 What's New: - Fixes bugs related to recently installed apps, for example, DTMF Voicemail Reminder. - Fixes bugs related to external media, for example, backup files, external hard drives, external USB drives. What's New in iOS 12 iOS 12 is the latest version of Apple's mobile operating system. New features include ARKit, video streaming services and a redesigned News app that's available on both iPhone and iPad. News The News app on the iPad now displays articles in a continuous stream, rather than the pages of a newspaper or magazine, and shows a single front page for a section of the newspaper. Articles can also be sent to Apple News, in order to access their headlines and content. There is also a new feature called Shared Links, which lets users share articles or other content through email, Messages, or Twitter, where other people can tap the link to share it to their News app, as well. Photos iOS 12 includes a feature called Memories that lets people create special albums with photos or videos that people have taken together. They can add photos from the library or from a specific date, or browse a group of photos from the last couple of days. The app also includes the new feature called Live Photos, which lets people tap a Live Photo to reveal a short video or animation, but the feature only works on iPhone X. Apple News iOS 12 features a new redesigned News app, with a combination of new features and existing ones that they've been added to. The app includes a universal index that shows stories, people, music and movies by topic, as well as a brand new front page feature where people can see the most popular stories from the last few days. The App Store Apple's app store and App Store have gotten redesigned. The list of apps has been condensed and rearranged, and there's a tab on top for the app itself. It's also possible to swipe between apps to see more information, and there's a button to quickly share apps with other people. Apps that are free but offer a subscription will have a "Get" button instead of the "Buy" button. Maps The Maps app
