Smarter tech: the world's best mobile apps. App Annie analyzes the massive amount of user behavior data we gather from our App Annie Intelligence Service to give you an at-a-glance view of your app's overall performance, trends, and competitive landscape. App Annie's Mobile App Analytics (MAA) helps you understand and optimize the performance of your app, and provides you with key insights into users' behavior. With MAA, you will get:

- Real-time App Analytics - Dailies, weekly, and monthly reports help you identify user interest in new content, engagement patterns, and insights into how to further increase app revenue.
- Mobile App Performance Intelligence - Includes a comprehensive set of mobile app metrics to help you understand how your app is performing, the best strategies to optimize the app for specific metrics, and high-value channels to your user base.
- Real-time App Risk Intelligence - Provides a complete view of your app's performance and risk profile to help you make informed decisions about your app's development.
- Brand Awareness and Engagement - Gives you a clear view of where your brand stands and how it's performing.
- Mobile App Strategies and Roadmaps - Helps you identify the best strategies for your app development and marketing needs. It's free for up to 15 mobile apps and provides you with a complete view of your app's performance and risk profile. For app managers who own more than 15 apps, App Annie provides a small premium service.
