There is only one link to it - to this site. And I would really like to have a personal page. The software installed on your computer and the operating system itself are protected by the "Microsoft SECURITY" license, which gives users protection from potential threats associated with the exploitation of vulnerabilities.

This requires the user's consent to the transfer of confidential information to third parties, its use for marketing purposes, as well as to the transfer of such data to third parties in order to receive rewards and gifts. Although Microsoft agreed to change the name of the SECRET license to SECRUITY, this license has not become the same legal immunity as before. Since SECUMERIC operate under
