Film is inspired by a true story about a schoolboy who is diagnosed with cancer.Why You Should Watch: After a long gap of two years, Rajkummar Rao and Manoj Bajpai are back together on screen. That is what they claim of this film in their promotion. In the film, Rajkummar plays the role of Priya, who is an orphan child of the rural family where he is staying. He lives here with his grandmother and she is living her last days. Priya likes to live a very simple life and enjoys her days fully. She is a very positive girl. One day, she reads in the newspaper about the alleged negligence of the hospital in the treatment of schoolboys suffering from the disease of cancer. She shares this piece of information to a friend of hers, who is also the son of a doctor. He promises to find out some truth from the hospital and he goes there. He talks to the doctor and understands the truth that the hospital is guilty of negligence. Here comes the drama. A young boy with cancer walks on the hospital's lawn and it haunts the people of the hospital. When the ward boy goes to see him, he dies. The news spreads all over the hospital that the boy is dead. Gradually, the truth is dragged out. Rajkummar plays the doctor's son who 82138339de
