Police say around 7:15 a.m., officers responded to an incident where a 7-year-old girl was shot and killed. The shooting happened at the intersection of 36th Avenue and Chestnut Street near Hyde Park. The girl died at the hospital, according to the Oakland Police Department. No arrests have been made yet, but police told SFGate it does not appear to be random. There was no argument or conflict before the shooting and police say it appears that the suspect was known to the girl. Police have not released a description of the suspect.
