One of the best and more secure ways to protect your computer from all kinds of viruses and.A search warrant has been executed at a home in Perth where a 20-year-old woman has been missing for nearly a week. A 52-year-old man from Carnegie has been charged with the alleged kidnapping and murder of Georgina Bartlett, who has not been seen since she was reported missing at 7.30pm last Saturday. Western Australia Police say the man is a family friend, and has been questioned but not charged. He is due to appear in court next week. "Detectives from Homicide Squad will be talking with family and friends of Georgina Bartlett to determine if there is anything they can assist with," a statement said. "One of the key aspects of this investigation is the absence of any social media activity on the victim's phone." The 20-year-old Bartlett had been living at the house in the North Beach area for about a year with her parents. The police arrested two men, one a 19-year-old, at a house in Rokeby Place shortly after midnight on Sunday. The second man was released without charge while the first man has been charged with the murder of Bartlett.
