Rice, who spent three seasons at Notre Dame under Ara Parseghian and has been on the job in Tuscaloosa for nine months, is well known as a firm player, and he will continue to follow his own style without deviating from the system. Sadio Mane has already signed for Southampton for £30m and the fact that Liverpool have accepted a £5.75m buy-out clause for the Senegalese midfielder means they won't be seeking a formal meeting of minds over any new deal. That is one of the reasons why Jurgen Klopp's side can be satisfied with the 27-year-old's decision to leave Anfield for the south coast. They are not in the process of holding out for a better replacement or of haggling over any future add-ons. Mane is a player whose best position is as a potent central forward but, following his £14million arrival from Southampton last summer, Klopp has been hoping to ease the physical demands on his star man. The Lallana situation is different. He is a left-sided midfielder and Liverpool expect to lose him to West Ham in January. For the Reds, this is a make-or-break moment in terms of their interest in Roma midfielder Mohamed Salah and the issues surrounding his proposed £13million move to Anfield remains unresolved. The ECHO understands Liverpool will go back to the Italian club with a view to securing a £7million settlement fee for the Egyptian and a January move. I've created a grid which is causing some problems. If I set float:left on the 2nd row. It gets applied to the entire grid. Here's the code:
#grid { background:black; } .item { float: left; margin: 1px; width: 300px; height: 200px; border: 1px solid white; } .red { background-color: red; } .green { background-color: green; } .yellow { background-color: yellow; } I'll very much appreciate any assistance. Thanks in advance! A: It is not possible. The CSS pre-processor does not look at the HTML when it evaluates the CSS file. In addition, it ignores the start and end tags, unless they are used to define a style. Source: [Rabies after natural bites of wild animals in the Czech Republic, 1997-2001]. During the years 1997-2001 there were 125 animal attacks with a clinical picture of rabies-exposure in the Czech Republic. Eighteen (14.4%) patients were already diagnosed with rabies. The majority of the patients were bitten by foxes (56% of the cases) and most often (73%) were exposed to an adult animal. In general the rabies diagnosis was made on the basis of clinical and laboratory findings (interleukin-2, rabies virus antigen, and/or specific antibodies) and the molecular-genetic confirmation was obtained on the basis of the amplification of
