Turned... I'm usually not a TV addict, but when I heard that Lady Gaga and Beyonce were performing live at a venue in the US, I was immediately intrigued. The show was to promote their new album, and guess what? It was a sold-out show! I had been scouring online for concert times, and the only other ones were in South Korea! At first I was a bit freaked-out because I'm not sure how I'd get to there and back in time. Luckily, I used the following site to find out the approximate time and route of the tour: This is the route of the tour as I found it online. The line starts out at 8:00 AM and goes straight to the venue, to avoid any line when they leave. When I got to the venue, I was asked how many tickets I wanted. I don't go to concerts and I'm not usually one to consider buying tickets on the internet, but this time, it was different. It was Lady Gaga, who is such a great singer, and who at one point in her career pushed her way into the mainstream. And I was in line at 7:00 AM! I might have sat for a few hours, but I'm a doer. The line
