

Easy Cricut Projects to Sell for Beginner Crafters

Want easy Cricut projects to sell? I've got your back! In this blog, you will find a list of project ideas that are a cakewalk. So, you only need to explore the projects you want to create.

I made these 7 crafts in February 2024 when I was up to nothing and had enough time to create DIY projects so that I could sell them online. So, I started crafting using my Cricut machine. But this time, I also called one of my best friends, John, who used to study together at school. We always worked on a project together. He also enthusiastically supported me, and the results of working with our friend are commendable.

Want to see what sorts of projects we have created so far? Check out this blog and find unique Cricut projects to sell.

1. Acrylic Keychains

It is one of the best easy Cricut projects to sell and one that you will want to create with ease. In these beautiful keychains, you can add various types of embellishment. Keychains should look good as they are the most widely used daily. Try these easier crafts projects and use your Cricut cutting machine to create them in no time. Besides, leather or wooden material was used to create these keychains. However, I have used an acrylic material that you can also use if you want.

2. Water Bottles

Who won't love a personalized bottle like this? John is adept at digital marketing, so he knows our target audience. He figured out that custom bottles would be one of the easy Cricut projects to sell. He also discovered that more than 50% of customers buy custom bottles. So, we planned to create these projects in huge numbers so that we could sell them and make money hassle-free

3. Cosmetic Bags

Keeping cosmetics items can be daunting, especially when traveling frequently. I created this for my mom, who travels a lot on her business trip. She said — this is one of the most wonderful gifts I could ever receive.

Whatever, I can create a lot of gifts like this. Thus, if you want to gift something to someone, you must try these cosmetic bags. You can also add a receiver's name to make it personalized.

4. Welcome Signs

If you want something like easy Cricut projects to sell, you must consider these welcome signs. People love to add decorations to their homes, so they often look for projects like this. You can easily help them elevate their home with these beautiful yet simple welcome signs. Believe it or not, it can be one of the best-selling items in your digital shop.

5. Home Decor

Here's another home decor item. A wall decal is one of the easiest things that I have made for decorating my home. I have added many such designs to my Amazon shop. Yes, people want premium-looking home wall decals that elevate their room and every corner of their house. So what are you waiting for? Create this item with unique designs and list them on your online shopping platform.

6. Apparel

I made this T-shirt while learning to transfer the design to fabrics. I mainly ordered a blank T-shirt from Etsy and counted this vinyl design. For this T-shirt, I used Iron-On in three different colors and had to cut them separately by changing the material. To make it easier, you can use the exact vinyl color. I recommend using white-colored vinyl, as it looks great on darker clothes.

Do you wonder about creating stickers on Cricut? This is one of my easy Cricut projects to sell. You might need the printer to print and cut the design, then cut it further on your Cricut. Using Cricut machines like Cricut Joy or another cutting machine, you can get customized stickers. Since there are various stickers to make and sell, you can try this simple one. The material I needed for this sticker is Iron-On, which you can easily get from Cricut's official site.
