10 Stunning Traditional Hairstyles for Wedding

A wedding day is truly a big day for any bride when she wants to look nothing short of perfect. Brides want perfection in everything, be it jewellery, dress, and the overall look. And a hairstyle is something that complements the whole look of the bride and should be just outstanding. Though girls with traditional hairstyle for wedding still stand out as they evolve into ever styling pieces of art that embrace the elegance of cultural richness. It will be fun to explore the top ten stunning traditional bridal hairstyle that tend to enhance the bridal look.

1. Braided Bun with Floral Gajra

A bun with braids is the popular choice for South Indian brides; it is also a variation of the classic bun that complements your overall appearance. It starts with braiding the hair, and then consider wrapping it into a bun to get a textured look. The floral gajra is then added to the bun, which results in a bridal charm. It can go with heavy sarees in silk or lehengas.

2. A Classic Juda (Bun) with Gold Accessories

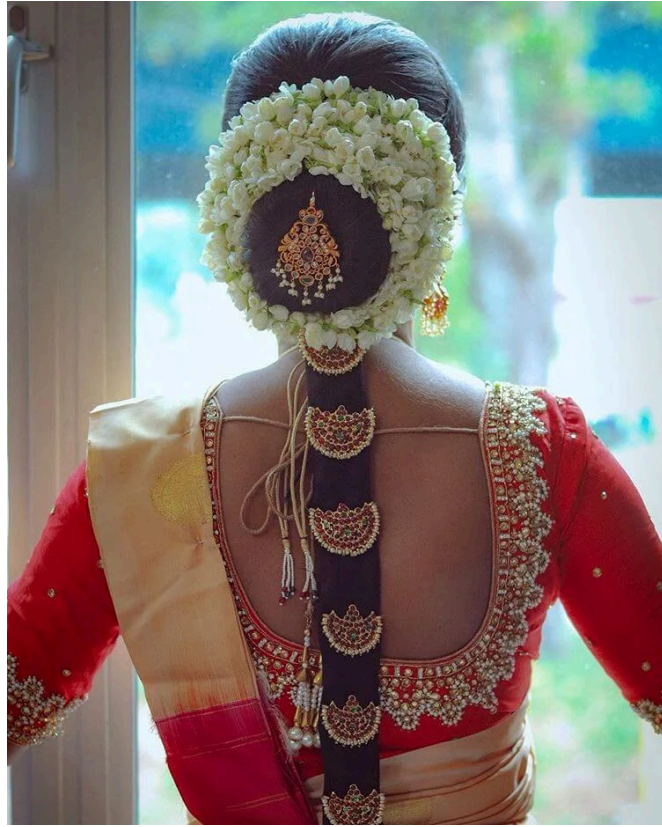

The classic Juda, also known as the bun, has always been the top choice for Indian brides to get the timeless hairstyle. The girls seeking traditional hairstyle for wedding can choose for the perfect blend of sophistication and tradition. With classic juda, you have the choice to get it secured at the nape of the neck or want to lift it a little higher. Plus, it can be beautifully adorned with gold accessories that make it the perfect match with your wedding attire.

3. Wavy Twisted With Partially Up & Down

This traditional hairstyle for wedding is the best choice for brides who want to combine modern flair with traditional elegance. It is about pulling back the hair of the upper section into a small braid and twisting the rest of the hair. It appears to have a romantic and soft look with floral accessories and stones embedded in hairpins.

4. Classic South Indian Braid Bridal Hairstyle

The front south Indian bridal hairstyle, popularly known as kudamala, is the long single braid that is beautified with flowers and gold jewellery throughout its length. It will be an appealing choice, especially for girls with hair extensions or naturally long hair. The bride can complement this hairstyle by adding fresh jasmine and marigold flowers, which improve the traditional touch.

5. Braid with Pearl Bridal Hairstyle

Brides who like to balance between modern and traditional appearances can find this braid with pearl bridal hairstyle is the perfect choice. The braid works to manage the classic elegance for ages, while pearls add style to the hairstyle. The pearls in the braid look luxurious and create an appealing touch to any bridal look. The beauty of this traditional hairstyle for wedding is that it beautifies the traditional and modern outfit of the bride.

6. Light Waves in Hair with Floral Accents

Hair with smooth waves and flowers surrounding throughout the length of the hair is the timeless bridal hairstyle, perfectly blending romance and elegance. Bridals who want to opt for a flowing look should go for it and enjoy the graceful appearance any bride can ever have. This bridal hairstyle for wedding can complement the heavy range of bridal outfits, such as modern gowns, sarees, traditional lehengas, and so on. The addition of delicate flowers gives you a natural beauty—a perfect look for an outdoor or garden wedding.

7. Rose Studded Bun Bridal Hairstyle for Wedding

The addition of roses to the bride’s bun has been the favourite bridal hairstyle that offer timeless beauty and embrace the elegance of traditional buns. Fresh roses add a touch of romance, making the perfect hairstyle for brides who love to adopt floral accents that make a statement with their
